

RSMC NEW DELHI - SYNTHETIC VERIFICATION REPORT (TEST FIXTURE, NOT REAL)
Annual review of cyclonic disturbances over the north Indian Ocean.
Contents: Cyclonic Storm ALPHA, Severe Cyclonic Storm BRAVO,
Very Severe Cyclonic Storm CHARLIE.

1. Cyclonic Storm 'ALPHA' (2021)

ALPHA formed over the Bay of Bengal and moved northwestwards.

Maximum sustained wind speed of 65 kmph. Central pressure 994 hPa.

ALPHA weakened before reaching the coast.

2. Severe Cyclonic Storm 'BRAVO' (2021)

BRAVO developed over the Arabian Sea with maximum sustained wind speed of 95 kmph. BRAVO made landfall near the Gujarat coast.

Storm surge of about 1 m inundated low-lying areas.

3. Very Severe Cyclonic Storm 'CHARLIE' (2021)

CHARLIE intensified rapidly over the Bay of Bengal. Landfall occurred as a Very Severe Cyclonic Storm. Maximum sustained wind speed of 120 kmph gusting to 145 kmph near the system centre.